THE COMPANY

Diseño y Textura S.A. is a textile company which since 1966 has been dedicated to the design and manufacture of women's fashion. Based in Terrassa (Barcelona), a small city with a large textile tradition, it started out as a small workshop and has now become a modern and innovative company with production and distribution both at national and international level.

Anna Mora and Brunella are its own brands which have become a benchmark in women's fashion for women with personality and unique style.
